CLASS HISTORY

Twelve years ago on September 3, 1943, we got in a bus at Arlington High School for a twelve year educational tour of the world. The first historical stop was the town of First Grade where we met Mrs. Bernice McMichael Dearing. It didn't take long for us to get acquainted, but we had to leave quite a few along the way.

In the town of Second we met Mrs. Irene Ross. In Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth we met Mrs. Reba Macy and Mr. Clarence Mitchell. We picked up Calvin Wagner in the Second. In those five years we picked up quite a few and lost quite a few, but they were wonderful years.

Then the big moment came, we climbed up a big hill, and were in the town of Seventh Grade. We couldn't believe that we were upstairs. That year we elected class officers. They were Ronnie Rucker as President, Ronnie Coffin as Vice-President, and Priscilla Ann Offutt as Secretary-Treasurer. Our courageous leader was Mrs. Mildred Harrod. We picked up Ronnie Haywood that year.

In the town of Eighth we left two people behind. The officers that year were Eddie Ronan President, Calvin Wagner Vice-President, and Jeannie Van Osdol Secretary-Treasurer. Again our leader was Mrs. Harrod.

In the town of Freshmen, we had a new experience of being initiated into High School. It was a lot of fun but awful messy. Our class leader for that year was Mr. Robert Hine. Officers for that year were Priscilla Offutt as President, Rodger Young as Vice-President, Jeannie Van Osdol as Secretary, and Ronnie Haywood as Treasurer. We picked up one student by the name of Ruth Ann Turner.

At the town of Sophomore we had another new experience. We received our class rings and we thought that they were beautiful. Our leader again that year was Mr. Hine. Our class officers were Rodger Young as President, Calvin Wagner as Vice-President, Priscilla Ann Offutt as Secretary, and Glenn Orme as Treasurer.

At the town called Junior we had the pleasure of putting on the Junior Play. We also sold candy to the school and at all the ballgames. The name of the play was "Mystery in the Library". We had a good crowd and we sold concessions. That also was the year that the Arlington School had the privilege of selling concessions at the Rush County Tourney. Our leader was Mr. Floyd Delon, and our class officers were Priscilla Offutt as President, Norman Winkler as Vice-President, Ronald Coffin as Secretary, and Jeannie Van Osdol as Treasurer.

Now we come to the final town on our trip. We have at last reached the town of Senior and are we happy. Our officers are Norman Winkler as President, Rodger Young as Vice-President, Ronnie Coffin as Secretary, and Priscilla Ann Offutt as Treasurer. Our leader this year is Mr. Ralph John. This year we get to put out the year book called the "Rambler". We also get to put on a Senior Play. As our trip ends we look back on the pleasant memories of Arlington High School. If it hadn't been for our helpful and patient teachers we would not have accomplished this success, the success of these twelve years.

Signs of the Zodiac

Class of 55'

The silent wheels of time their rounds have driven on for 25 years and it is now the year of 1980. As we look upon the class of 1955 we find that due to their lucky horoscopes each has achieved success in his chosen field.

As the wheels of fortune revolves Jeannie Van Osdol comes into focus. Madam Jeannie is a world famous dress designer. The world awaits breathlessly for the opening of her latest style show in Rome.

Next we see Dr. Ronald Coffin who was destined to become a famous horologist. He is professor of Horology in Istanbul, city in Turkey.

Navigator David Henby directs his space ship with skill. He commutes daily from earth to Mars.

Playboy Ronnie Haywood is a well known world adventurer. He appears to be carefree and to have no worries. He is a model for all who wish to be happy.

Statesman Eddie Ronan is now ambassador to the Pitcarirn Islands. He represents the power and dignity of his country.

Norman Winkler, corn king, is a prominent botanist. He is also known for his work in Agrostology. Norman says, "Make two blades of grass grow where one grew before."

Glenn Orme is now president of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. He did not rise to fame until 1975 when he won four consecutive races in his jet propelled race car. Speed King Orme is fast in more ways than one.

We see Dr. Betty Heath an instructor in early Egyptian History. She is an authority on Egyptian archaeology.

Roger Young has become a comedian. He has entertained royalty with his dramatic performances. His motto is to always to be merry, jolly and gay.

Ex-prize fighter Ronnie Rucker steps into view. The old warrior of the ring, now retired, was victorious many times in pugilistic combat.

The classmates point with pride to Miss Ruth Turner, associate judge of the Supreme Court. Her advice is especially sought in criminal cases.

By utilizing the knowledge gained in Professor Potts chemistry class Calvin Wagner is a famed metallurgist. His guiding principle is "strike while the iron is hot."

Lawrence William Cherry is an epicurean. He has become the modern day Duncan Hines. He is world famous for his gastronomical delicacy mole de guajote (same being "mo lay" sauce with turkey).

The somewhat carefree but nebulous career of Priscilla Ann Offutt is that of a romanticist. A romantic adventurer by nature ensured her success as a journalist. The nom de plume "Prince Albert" is her favorite for all written articles.

The Junior Class presented their play "The Able Miss Cain" Oct. 28 and 29. with Mrs. White as director.

The Prescotts are a prosperous middle class family. Elinor, Leaper's wife rules the roost; Spoiled Cheryl is Mama's pride and joy. Petey is somewhat neglected; but he takes up hypnotism as a hobby. Mamie Magoon is so dumb she thinks corn-syrup is a medicine for corns! Elinor makes Leaper's niece, Mary Jo Jennings, do most of the house work.

Complications arise as the family tries to play poverty stricken to gain Aunt Molly Cain's wealth.

Mrs. Livermore, the cranky boarder, and Aunt Molly Cain, a vitamin expert, take things into their own hands to show the Prescotts that they cannot be fooled. Petey's hypnotism of Izzy and Fife adds fun for everybody. As the play ends we find Mary Jo happy with Jed; Leaper in control of the family, and Cheryl and Elinor paying for their pride and greed.
